Garage sale permit application

The Town of Oakland has regulations governing the time, duration, and number of garage sales, yard sales, moving sales and estate sales. The Town's regulations ensure that garage sales remain fun, casual events, and don't turn into regular businesses or flea markets that could violate the Zoning Code, be a nuisance and disrupt the residential character of your neighborhood.

Regulations

- Time and duration. A property may have up to four garage sales in a calendar year. A garage sale cannot be longer than 72 hours (three consecutive days).
- Sale items. Only personal property may be sold at garage sales. Block sales are permitted.
- Signs. Garage sale signs may only be displayed when the sale is taking place. (Signs up before or after the Sale will be removed by staff). The cumulative amount of signage to advertise one sale is four square feet (i.e. one 4² sign, two 2² signs, four 1² signs). Signs may be posted at safe locations in the road right-of-way, but they must not be attached to utility or light poles. All signs must be removed after the sale is over.
- Permit. A permit is required for all garage sales. The permit fee is $2.
